AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN
FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE LODGE 108
and
THE BOROUGH OF GLASSBORO

The Fraternal Order of Police Lodge 108 Patrolmen, Corporals and Detectives Unit and Superior Officers Unit (FOP) and the Borough of Glassboro (Borough) acknowledge that the purpose of this Agreement is to reduce a budget shortfall and this document is a limited and temporary amendment to the previously negotiated and agreed upon respective Collective Bargaining Agreements.

The FOP and the Borough agree to the following:

Patrol Shift Change: The 3pm – 12mn shift is changed to 4pm – 12mn shift for the duration of the contract.

Personal Days: If personal days are not used by the end of the year, they shall be converted to 2 sick bank days or 8 hours compensatory time per 8 hours personal time. Each employee must choose either the sick bank or compensatory time in full. There will be no splitting between sick bank and compensatory time. This provision will be for the duration of the contract.

Holidays: Officers agree to receive compensatory time instead of straight pay, this also applies to on call pay for holidays. Compensatory time bank cap will be increased to 250 hours. Officers that exceed the 250 hour limitation will be required to utilize their time in the same manner described in the Collective Bargaining Agreements as if they were at the 200 hour limitation to the point that they reach 250 hours. This provision will be for 2010 only.

Training Hours: Training hours will be reduced from 36 hours to 26 hours for the duration of the contract.

Detective Hours: Detective's work hours will be reduced to equal the number of hours worked by the Patrol Division in a manner that is acceptable to the Chief of Police and Detective Division Supervisor.

The Borough and the FOP recognize that this Agreement will become void on December 31, 2012 and that upon commencement of collective bargaining, all negotiations will be based upon the current and respective Collective Bargaining Agreements.
